2019-20

(Conferences, workshops, seminars and FDP)

Workshop

The PG Department of Chemistry has organized a One day Workshop on Synthetic strategies & problems involving synthetic strategies on 14th February, 2020. I and II M.Sc Chemistry attended the workshop. Dr.S.Swarnalakshmi, Retd.Professor of Gurunanak College delivered a lecture on "Introduction - Synthetic strategies". Dr. D.Suresh Kumar, Associate Professor, Loyola College and Dr. A. John Maria Xavier, Assistant Professor, Loyola College delivered lectures on "Problems involving synthetic strategies". This workshop gave insights on how to disconnect various organic molecules and to propose suitable organic synthetic strategies for the students.
