வரலாறு

- The history of the Tamil language and how it's been created is explained by Tamil literary and debate club president Keerthana

THE SPECIAL TALK

- Nowadays people feel ashamed to talk in Tamil, ” Language is just for communication not a compulsory thing in India ”
- Keerthi Rosini from our club coordinator explained the importance of Tamil and we have to cherish our language on this World's Language Day either it could be Tami, Telugu, or Malayalam we feel proud to represent our mother tongue

CHIEF GUEST SPEECH

- ✚ DR. PUNITHA D –THE HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT OF POSTGRADUATE MASSCOMMUNICATION

- ✚ Tamil has obtained classical status. It's one of the first languages to attain this status.
- ✚ Today, Tamil is spoken not only in Tamil Nadu but also in northern Sri Lanka, Singapore, Malaysia, Mauritius, South Africa, and Fiji. 1% of the world's population is Tamil speaking people, and it is the 15th most spoken language in the world.

- ✚ Tamil has been bestowed with official language status in quite a few countries, and it is one of the most widely spoken languages in the world.
- ✚ There are 6809 languages available in the world. 700 languages you can write and speak, 100+ languages own alphabet. 6 of them are basic languages. Tamil, Hebrew, old Greek, Latin, Sanskrit, and Chinese. But today only Tamil, Chinese, and Hebrew are still spoken and written officially.
- ✚ Researcher Alex Said “The First Language Known To The Humans was Tamil, spoken widely in the southern parts of the Indian states like Tamilnadu, Kerala, Karnataka, AndhraPradesh, and Telangana.”
- ✚ Nearly a Quarter of the Tamil speaking people do not know how to read or write. But still Tamil is one of the longest surviving languages in The World.
- ✚ She gave such an informative information about Tamil on this World’s LanguageDay’22.

Finally, the event ended with the Alma mater and National Anthem

Tamil Literary and Debate Club

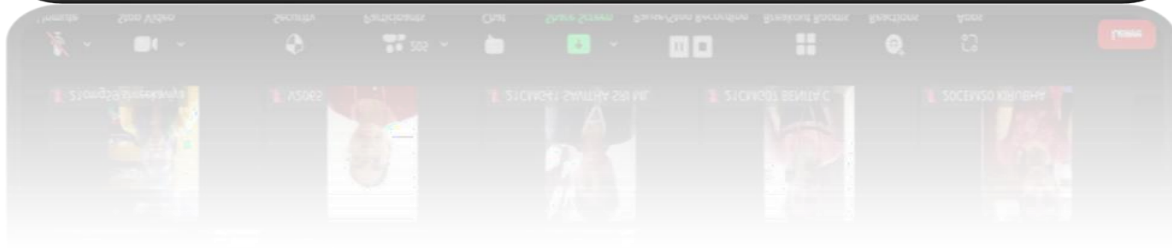

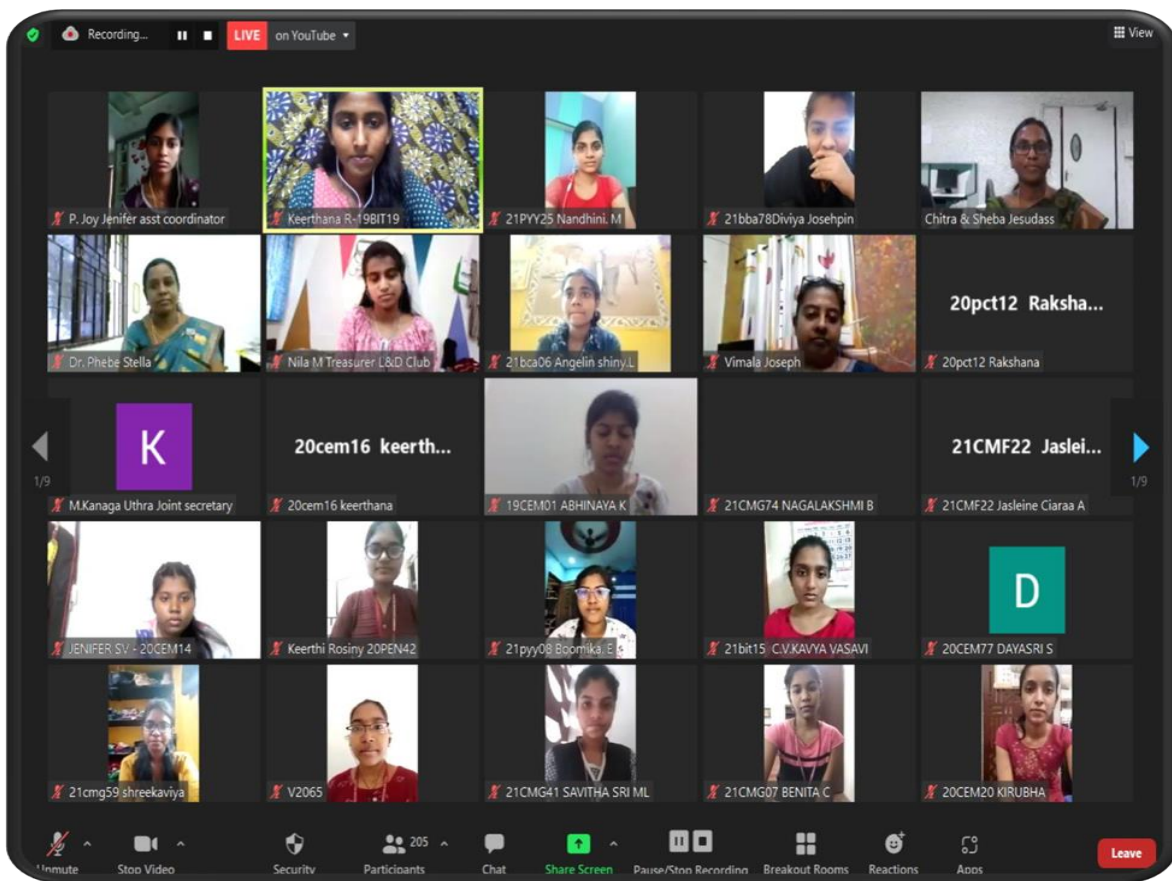

- ✚ The Tamil Literary and Debate Club of Women's Christian College in collaboration with the Information Resource Centre NDLI has conducted an event named "ILAKKIYATHAI NUGHARVOM" on 25th November 2021 at 12:50 pm.
- ✚ NDLI stands for National Digital Library of India which provides free of cost access to many books in the Indian languages and English.
- ✚ In this event, the students were encouraged to participate as well as to be a spectator. Nearly 500 students attended this event.
- ✚ The participants chose one Tamil poem from the Sangam age and fabulously recited the poem in the meanwhile explaining the poem in a way anyone can understand even if they are not well versed in the Tamil language.

- ✚ The event began with a heartfelt prayer by Ms. Chitra Inbanathan, Librarian, and President of the NDLI club.
- ✚ It was followed by Dr. Lisa Sheba Rani's welcome address who is also the Librarian, Secretary of the NDLI club.
- ✚ It was proceeded by Dr. Phebe Stella A's, Head of Tamil Department Shift II, explicit introduction of the event.
- ✚ The most awaited competition began and the participant's eloquent explanations made everyone forget about other things. Last but not least the Vote of Thanks was given by Ms. Keerthana R of III BSc Information technology, President of Tamil Literary and Debate club.
- ✚ We as the club are so grateful to the ALMIGHTY for without His grace this event would not have become possible.

Here are the beautiful pictures that were taken during the most memorable moment of the event
