Even as the reopening of educational institutions remains undecided in the State due to the pandemic, a few city college students wanted to ensure they don't miss out on extra-curricular activities as per the college calendar. They have taken such events online. Recently, the annual bazaar by the Department of Business Administration of MOP Vaishnav College for Women was conducted online. A few days ago, Women's Christian College (WCC), too, organised, Battlefest — their annual inter-department fest, online.

A SHIFT IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION

The MOP Bazaar aims to develop entrepreneurial skills in youngsters. "The department has been organising it for the past several years. This time, we wanted to grab the opportunity and learn online business first hand. The promotions were carried out on the MOP E-Bazaar 2020-21 social media page. And the buyers were guided to individual stall platforms through the page," says Anjali Soundarya P, minister of the Entrepreneurship Student Cabinet of the college. From accessory and clothing stalls to those that sell baking items — the event had a variety of stalls by students and alumnae of the college. Janani Vijayakumar, an alumnus of the college, who had an online stall says, "There were several takeaways — understanding the demand through

WHY STUDENTS ARE KEEN ON ONLINE EVENTS

- See this as a new chance to upskill themselves
- Gives them a sense of normalcy
- Don't want to miss out on college traditions

IIT-M MULLS SAARANG 2021 ONLINE

Parth Doshi, who heads the sponsorship and PR team of Saarang 2021, says, "A month ago, we got a notification from the institute that Saarang 2021 won't happen in person. Since then, we have been planning things to do it online. Even during the lockdown, we organised Saarang Encore — professional performances by artistes. We set a precedent for many colleges by organising events online. We don't want to miss out on the experience of Saarang. Outsiders may see it as a five-day event. But for us, students, it's a year-long preparation. The upcoming Saarang organising teams are chosen right after the previous year's event."

I want to join the Army and train in OTA, says Arpitha Muralidharan

THOUGH I ALSO GOT SELECTED FOR THE RAJPATH EVENT, I COULDN'T TAKE PART IN IT DUE TO AN INJURY. THE BEST CADET EVENT INCLUDES A WRITTEN EXAM, INTERVIEW, GROUP DISCUSSION AND DRILL. THE FINAL INTERVIEW WAS WITH THE DG OF NCC. THE GOLD WINNERS WERE AWARDED AT THE PM RALLY

Arpitha adds, "There are so many people I am thankful to — my family, friends, teachers and my fellow NCC cadets. My phone is flooded with congratulatory messages and calls."

Explaining the process through which she was adjudged the Best Cadet, the protagonist says, "We were 26 of us in the contingent. We reached Delhi on December 20 and then, we were in quarantine till January 4, when the selection started. I took part in both the Rajpath and Best Cadet event selection. Though I got selected for Rajpath, I couldn't take part in it at the last minute due to an injury. The event involves only drill, but the Best Cadet event includes a written exam, interview, group discussion and drill. The final interview was with the DG of NCC and the gold winners were awarded at the PM rally at Connaught Place in Delhi."

Ask her what she wants to pursue after graduation — she is studying psychology — and put across the reply, "I want to join the Army. My mother wanted to see me in Navy while. That's why I joined the Naval unit. And my father wants to see me in olive green uniform (laughs). After clearing the required exams, I hope to join OTA Chennai for training."
