Policy for the disabled students

The policy has been framed with the objective to create an enriching learning environment for the disabled students.

- To provide easy access to classrooms and other facilities by adapting the campus to their needs for mobility and independent functioning so as to empower them to acquire education without any obstacles.
- To ensure timely and adequate assistance for enquiring and accessing necessary information.
- To provide special guidance and counseling to such students.
- To address any general issues concerning learning that they may encounter.
- To assess their educational needs and provide assistance accordingly.
- To study their aptitude and guide them accordingly.
- To provide them with special learning and assessment devices.
- To orient faculty to cater to their special needs.
- To sensitize the entire college community to their needs so that an inclusive environment is created for them.
- To provide special assistance to gain successful employment.
